County, Georgia.
Civil Action No. 1:90-cv-1911-RHH.

Dear Tax Assessors:

Enclosed for your records are recorded copies of:

- * Complaint for Forfeiture
- * Warrant for Arrest and Notice
- * Lis Pendens

You are herewith notified of the pending forfeiture of the subject property. This will afford you the opportunity to file a claim for any delinquent taxes which were due and payable on said property prior to, October 19, 1990, the date of seizure by the United States. Please ensure that your claim, if any, is filed with the district court clerk and serve a copy upon the United States Attorney. Claims must be verified and filed within ten (10) days from receipt of this letter and any answer must be filed within twenty (20) days thereof. See Rule C(6) of Supplemental Rules for Certain Admiralty and Maritime Claims. Service copies of the claim and answer may be mailed to my attention at the address on this letterhead.

You are advised that the United States Government is exempt from State and Local taxation pursuant to the Doctrine of Sovereign Immunity; therewith resulting in concurrent exemption of property in government custody. Therefore, the Department of Justice will not pay State or Local taxes incurred after the property is seized for forfeiture. In the event that the property is not forfeited to the United States, taxing will resume on the date this property is released from custody by the court.

Your prompt attention to this matter will be appreciated.
