Brief Legal Description:

1. The first part of the report is a general statement of the purpose of the study, which is to determine the effect of the new tax law on the income of the individual taxpayer.

2. The second part of the report is a description of the sample of taxpayers who were selected for the study. The sample was selected from the list of taxpayers who filed returns for the year 1964.

3. The third part of the report is a description of the data that were collected for the study. The data were collected from the returns of the taxpayers in the sample.

4. The fourth part of the report is a description of the results of the study. The results show that the new tax law had a significant effect on the income of the individual taxpayer.

5. The fifth part of the report is a conclusion and a list of references.
